HOOTY THE OWL'S
CASTLE

Jimmy Skunk picked his way through the Green Forest, talking to himself, which is a way he has. He had met Peter Rabbit running and looking as if a chase was at his heels. When he had asked Peter what the matter was, Peter's teeth had chattered so with fright that he couldn't speak. He had just pointed in the direction from which he had come and then hurried. Now Jimmy Skunk isn't afraid of much of anything and as he didn't have anything else to do, he took it into his head that he would go to see what had frightened Peter Rabbit so.

Jimmy Skunk picked his way through the Green Forest.

"Mr. Freddy runs away from me all the time," said Jimmy Skunk, "and he always with a frightened look on his face. I wonder what he is afraid of."

"What that you are saying, Peter?"

Jimmy looked up at the "Tilly" Peter was talking down from his doorway in the tree.

"Come on," Tilly said, "let's see what has frightened Peter Rabbit. He's been talking about it for days."

"Then told you," Tilly said, "let's see what has frightened Peter Rabbit. He's been talking about it for days."

"Then told you," Tilly said, "let's see what has frightened Peter Rabbit. He's been talking about it for days."

DOBBY DIX

Remember That When a Man Asks a Girl to Be His Wife It Is Her Great Moment—Don't Disappoint
Her by Proposing at the Wrong Time and Place—
And Never, Never, Pop the Question by Letter

A young man who is in love with a girl and wants to marry her wishes her to tell him how to do it. It is easy enough to tell you how to do it, but it is virtually impossible to tell you how to do it. It is because to do it really means to do it at the right time, in the right place, and with the right words. It is not a matter of doing it at all, but of doing it at the right time, in the right place, and with the right words. It is not a matter of doing it at all, but of doing it at the right time, in the right place, and with the right words.

But I do implore you to put some thought into your proposal and try to make it something that the young woman will be proud to remember as long as she lives, and that she will tell her grandchildren about when she is a grey-haired old woman.

Remember that when a man asks a girl to be his wife it is her great moment. It is the culmination of all the dreams she has dreamed since she was a girl, and it is the moment when she will be able to tell her grandchildren about when she is a grey-haired old woman. It is not a matter of doing it at all, but of doing it at the right time, in the right place, and with the right words.

Don't disappoint her by something so inconsiderate that she has to guess it is a proposal because it doesn't sound like anything. Don't tell her that you are proposing to her by a letter, or by a note, or by a card, or by a telegram, or by a postcard, or by a photograph, or by a drawing, or by a painting, or by a sculpture, or by a statue, or by a monument, or by a building, or by a city, or by a country, or by a world.

Superiors In 'Stadden Death Game At Varsity Tonight

IF ELKS WIN
THEY WILL BE IN PLAY-OFF

Believe It or Not

By Ripley

Game Tonight Will Decide
Which Team Meets
Maple Leafs

The Superiors-Anitos clash with the Elks tonight in a sudden-death game at Varsity rink for the right to meet the Maple Leafs in the play-off of the Senior Amateur hockey league. The game will get underway at 8:15.

It will be a game that should attract a large crowd as both of these teams have been in the face of close and should be going at it with hot blood. The Superiors defeated the Maple Leafs in the first round of the playoffs. The Elks, who were the "Hells Bells" boys, were their opponents in the first round.

They'll Fight Hard
Both clubs possess players capable of high-class hockey and with the added incentive of getting a berth in the play-offs they will be out fighting their hardest for a win. The last time these two teams met the Elks took the victory in a 2-1 score. The game was played on the Elks' arena where it was generally thought the Superiors would have an easy time.

Their Big Chance
That looking still hurts Will Talbot's purchasers and they have been waiting for revenge. They will get their chance when they take the ice tonight and see whether they will be successful or not.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE - - By Ahern

THEY TELL ME YOU HAVE QUITE A CRUSH ON MISS CHURCH, JAKE!

"I KNOW THERE MUST BE SOMETHING TO IT, AS YOUR APPETITE AT THE TABLE HAS FALLEN OFF TO SUCH A DEGREE."

"TELL ME, IS IT A CASE OF LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT, OR SECOND HEARING, OF HER BANK ACCOUNT?"

"JUST FRIENDSHIP, MACHIA— THAT'S ALL—NOTHING SERIOUS!— WE'RE GOING TO A CONCERT TONIGHT! I'LL FLASH MY DEW-DROP BADGE AT THE BOX OFFICE FOR A COUPLE OF SEATS!—I SPRUNG IT AT 'OL CACAO HOUSE SHOW, AND A SMART CRACKER AT THE TICKET WINDOW ASKED TO SEE MY TEETH, TO SEE IF I HAD A CHANCE TO WIN A RIBBON!"

"BUT I GOT A LOAD OF HAV—"

WHEAT VALUES HOLD STEADY

WINNIPEG, Feb. 15.—Despite lack of buying interest on the Winnipeg grain exchange, values held fairly steady on the 1-3c during the day. The October option being the weaker position. At the close quotations were 1-3c higher. The other grades were 1-4c lower yesterday's finish.

Confidential buyers were credited with some purchases early in the session, while exporters and commission houses showed spasmodic interest.

Good demand prevailed for the local oats.

Rye was also taken at a premium of 1-2c higher. The other coarse grains were dull.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Level trading on the board. The buyers of corn did a good deal to make corn prices turn downward early today. The market for wheat was influenced by the fact that Liverpool quotations showed an unexpected decline with which the market here from Argentina. Opening unchanged to ¼¢ off, then underwent a moderate setback all day.

Wheat started unchanged to 1¢ lower and subsequently showed a genera-
